Candy Danzis
The Mainstream Mystic

Angel Communicator, Spiritual Counselor and Intuitive Healer, Candy Danzis, O.M., R.M.T., maintains a private counseling practice in the United States. Her clients call on her as a translator for connection with the spirit realm, both in-person and via telephone, from as far away as Argentina, Denmark, Peru and Great Britain. Her clients include medical practitioners, business leaders and other professionals. Candy's practical, self-help workshops, including ANGEL ALIGNMENT™ and SUCCESSFUL INTUITIVE LIVING™ attract those individuals desiring "spirit" in a mainstream, no-fluff manner.

Known as "The Mainstream Mystic™," Candy enjoyed a successful 20 year career in commercial banking—using traditional banking parameters and her intuitive skills—to determine the credit worthiness of her customers. Today, she employs those same business and intuitive techniques to motivate and educate her clients to use their own God-given intuitive gifts. Danzis teaches clients to connect with their "Spiritual Support Team"—Angels, Guides, Helpers and deceased loved ones.

"Professionals don't want to hear about fairy dust and flowing robes," says Danzis. "My clients have practical, metaphysical needs to balance their busy lives and keep them grounded and productive."

As a youth, Candy communicated easily and naturally with her Angel friends; often connecting to guidance for those around her... but she also learned to keep her abilities to herself for the fear of ridicule from others. Later in life, as Candy matured and called on her Angels to help her with her spiritual quest for knowledge, she began to fully awaken to the presence of Angels and Beings-of-Light in her everyday life. As she opened to receiving guidance for others, she gently began conveying the information she was receiving and found that people were healing and improving lifelong issues.

Candy Danzis has been exploring her spiritual connection, with her gifts of clairvoyance and clear knowing, for over 30 years. As a student of spirituality, religion, holistic healing and metaphysics, she has helped thousands of people to tap into their spirituality. Her "Angel Alignment™ Meditations" and "Cord Cutting & Release" CD's are used by her clients and students as a daily resource.

Candy's unique approach to personal meditation—The OMM Method™... or One-Minute Meditation... is a meaningful daily meditation method that allows busy people on the go to stay connected to spirit. "How many professionals do you know have the time to stop what they're doing and meditate for hours? It's just not going to happen."

Her production company—ANGELWOOD PRODUCTIONS—produces various workshops throughout the U.S.A. and overseas. The largest metaphysical event—the CLAIM YOUR POWER CONFERENCE—attended by hundreds annually in Hershey, Pennsylvania, features internationally known authors and healers. Keynote speakers include Dr. Brian Weiss, M.D., Sonia Choquette, John Holland, Dr. Joan Borysenko, Don Miguel Ruiz, Dr. Judith Orloff and Karen Drucker.
